

September 22, 2010

L&T Wins BCCI's Good Corporate Citizen Award

L&T won the Good Corporate Citizen Award 2009-10 instituted by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce & Industry (BCCI), at Mumbai yesterday. Mr. R.N. Mukhija, President & Member of the Board, received the Award from the Governor of Maharashtra, Mr. K. Sankaranarayanan. The award affirms increasing public recognition of the Company's impressive record in the social track of business and its high standards of corporate governance and ethics.

Mr. R.N. Mukhija receiving the BCCI Good Corporate Citizen Award from the Governor. At centre is Mr. Nitin Paranjpe, President, BCCI.

L&T emerged first among all large corporates in contention when measured against the stringent criteria drawn up by the BCCI. The evaluation parameters included Business Performance, Corporate Interests, Employee Welfare, Customer & Stakeholder Satisfaction and Social Investment.

The Bombay Chamber is the oldest body of its kind in India. It is specially heartening that L&T secured this prestigious distinction as the Chamber celebrated its 175th Foundation Day. The judges for the Award are drawn from the legal, corporate and academic fields. This year's panel comprised Justice Roshan Dalvi, Bombay High Court, Mrs. Farida Lambay, Vice-Principal, College of Social Work, Nirmala Niketan, Mumbai and Mr. K.K. Nohria, Advisor, Crompton Greaves Global.

L&T had earlier won BCCI's Good Corporate Citizen Award in 1995.