L&T Construction Wins Power T&D Orders Valued `1376 Crores

Mumbai, September 30, 2015: The Power Transmission & Distribution Business of L&T Construction has won orders worth ` 1376 crores in both the domestic and international markets in September 2015.

In the domestic market, the Solar Business has bagged multiple orders from a reputed solar power developer for the engineering, procurement and construction of 115 MWp solar installations in the southern part of the country.

Upon completion, the total installed capacity of solar plants by the company would be 643 MWp, one of