L&T Construction Wins Orders Valued `2048 Crores

Mumbai, November 5, 2015: The Construction arm of Larsen & Toubro Limited has won orders worth 2048 crores across various business verticals in October 2015.

Power Transmission & Distribution:

The Business has won orders worth `758 crores in both the international and domestic markets.

On the international front, Larsen & Toubro Saudi Arabia LLC, a fully owned subsidiary of L&T, has bagged an order against stiff competition from local players for the construction of four 132kV substations in Riyadh from National Grid, Saudi Arabia, a subsidiary of Saudi Electricity Company.

The scope involves detailed design, engineering, construction, testing and commissioning of 132 kV

Buildings & Factories:

The Business has secured orders worth ` $558\ crores$ including add-ons.

An order has been received from a leading real estate developer for the construction of