L&T Construction Wins Orders Valued 3572 Crore

Mumbai, Nov 27, 2017: The construction arm of L&T has won orders worth 3572 crore across various business segments.

Transportation Infrastructure Business:

The business has been awarded a prestigious contract worth 1358 crore for the construction of a new South Parallel runway, apron and associated works (taxiway systems, pavement, drainage works, ancillary buildings and associated infrastructure facilities) at the Kempegowda International Airport, Bengaluru, on EPC basis from

Buildings & Factories Business:

The business has bagged orders worth 355 crore.

An order has been bagged from a reputed healthcare firm to design & build the Lucknow International Hospital at Lucknow, which will be equipped with world class healthcare facilities like radiology & Imaging, laboratories, OPD, electro-diagnostics, chemotherapy, 10 Operation Theatre complexes, Theatrebritredtiothe